COURT CLOSURE NOTIFICATIONS

Blizzards, hurricanes, and other weather conditions may at times cause the courts to close. If you have a case scheduled and you are not sure whether or not the assigned court is open, the Trial Court website may be the first thing you turn to. The website will post on the home page an update of any courts that are closed for the day, and there are instructions if you wish to sign up for the court closure email list. Given the weather this winter, being on the list may save you from driving in bad weather only to find the courts are closed. For additional details on closures please see the Trial Court website at <http://www.mass.gov/courts>.
